

Blue Mountains Socialgaine

Sunday 16th November, 2008

*A colour-full-day
A Kaleidoscopic Course!*

There may not be coastal vistas, salt spray or running through thick sand, but there will be waterholes, rock hopping and great mountain panoramas. Plus... shaded bushland tracks, village streets, friendly lizards and you may even learn a bit of history along the way.

So make sure your knapsack is stocked with water and sustenance - jellybeans are always good! Don't forget your compass, as there may be the option for some off-track roaming (exploring the shrub and flowers).

Put the date on your calendar, and find a friend or two, for this Blue Mountains Extravaganza. Keep an eye on the website for new photos and more details closer to the event!

What is it? Rogaining is the sport of long distance cross country navigation in which teams of two to five visit as many checkpoints as they wish in a set time. This event has a 6 hour time limit for teams and is less competitive than most rogaines, aiming to be more of a social affair.

Teams and categories: Teams may consist of 2-5 people. Team categories are Men, Women, Mixed, Junior (14-17), Veteran (40+), Superveteran (55+), Novice (first Rogaine for ALL team members), and Family (team members must all belong to the same family with at least one parent or grandparent and one child under 18). Any team with a child under 14 must also have an adult member.
