The Course Area

There are hints of mining history across the map and some impressive ruins of the old chimney and winding house from the Aberdare South Colliery. Much older are the fossils which can be seen in the rocks in some areas. Other features include detailed erosion gullies, winding watercourses, rocky ridges and overhangs.

There are many open and fast sections of forest throughout the course. However, because you will encounter some spiky vegetation, we recommend full body cover.

There is a large unfenced dam to the south-west of the Hash House. Please supervise young children in this area.

There is a lot of native wildlife in the area. You might see kangaroos and wallabies, emus, possibly a wombat and many kinds of birds from waterbirds to parrots. Yellow-tailed Black Cockatoos can be heard and seen throughout and you may be lucky enough to see endangered birds like the Swift Parrot or Regent Honeyeater.

The map

The map will be printed on A3 waterproof paper (there is no need to cover it with contact etc).

Rogaining is an activity which can involve risk of personal injury or property damage. While it is acknowledged as a challenging activity, the risks ought not be discounted particularly navigating through potential dangers in a bush setting in daylight or darkness. Other, but less obvious, risks will occur because of the nature and type of terrain through which the activities are conducted. The NSW Rogaining Association (NSWRA) requires all participants to carry equipment such as suitable clothing, food, torches, compasses, water, first aid kit and any other allowed devices which will limit the inherent risks in the activity. By participating in the activity, each participant acknowledges that the sport of Rogaining involves considerable risk and agrees that by entering this rogaine they do so at their own risk. The NSWRA does not accept any responsibility for death, injury, loss and damage to the participant and agrees to allow the participant to participate in the activity only on that basis.

b) The participant agrees to further indemnify and hold harmless all entities and persons mentioned in the above clause (a) above from all liabilities, claims or action, as mentioned above, irrespective of whether the NSWRA or its employees or agents may have been negligent.

In particular, the participant agrees to indemnify the NSWRA for any loss or damage arising from participating in the event and agrees that this indemnity may be pleaded as a complete defence to any legal proceedings or any right the participant may claim against the NSWRA, its servants, agents or any owner or occupier of land used in the proceedings.
